

GOVERNMENT
No. 12-2006-ND-CP

SOCIALIST REPUBLIC OF VIETNAM
Independence - Freedom - Happiness

Hanoi, 23 January 2006

DECREE
MAKING DETAILED PROVISIONS
FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE COMMERCIAL LAW
WITH RESPECT TO INTERNATIONAL PURCHASES AND SALES OF GOODS; AND AGENCY FOR SALE AND PURCHASE, PROCESSING AND TRANSIT OF GOODS INVOLVING FOREIGN PARTIES

The Government

Pursuant to the Law on Organization of the Government dated 25 December 2001;
Pursuant to the Commercial Law dated 14 June 2005;

On the proposal of the Minister of Trade;

Decrees:

CHAPTER I
General Provisions

Article 1 Governing scope

1. This Decree makes detailed provisions for implementation of the Commercial Law with respect to international purchases and sales of goods including import, export, temporary import for re-export, temporary export for re-import, and transshipment; and for activities of principals and authorized dealers in importing and exporting goods and in agency for sale and purchase, processing and transit of goods involving foreign business entities.

2. Goods being moveable assets, goods servicing the needs of individuals with diplomatic status, and personal luggage as defined by law are governed by separate regulations of the Prime Minister of the Government.

Article 2 Applicable entities

Vietnamese business entities; and other organizations and individuals with activities relating to commerce as stipulated in the Commercial Law.

CHAPTER II

Import and Export of Goods

Article 3 Right to conduct the business of import and export

1. With respect to Vietnamese business entities without direct foreign invested capital (hereinafter referred to as business entities):

Business entities shall have the right to import and export goods irrespective of the lines of business for which they have business registration, except for goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended.

Branches of business entities shall be permitted to import or export goods as authorized by the business entities.

2. With respect to business entities with foreign invested capital, foreign companies and branches of foreign companies in Vietnam:

When business entities, companies and branches conduct commercial activities within the governing scope of this Decree, in addition to complying with this Decree, they must also comply with other relevant laws and undertakings of Vietnam in international treaties to which the Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a member.

Based on current law and international treaties, the Minister of Trade shall announce the schedule for and the scope of business activities of the business entities stipulated in this clause.

Article 4 Procedures for import and export

1. Any business entity wishing to import or export goods for which import and export is subject to issuance of a permit must have a permit from the Ministry of Trade or other ministry managing the specialized industry.

2. Import and export goods must comply with the relevant regulations on plant quarantine and on hygiene, safety and quality of foodstuffs and shall be subject to inspection by the specialized industry State administrative bodies prior to customs clearance.

3. Goods not on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended, and not being goods stipulated in clauses 1 and 2 of this article shall only be subject to customs clearance procedures at the customs bordergate.

Article Goods the import or export of which is prohibited

1. The list of goods the import or export of which is prohibited is promulgated with this Decree (Appendix 1).
2. The Government shall issue any decision amending the list of goods the import or export of which is prohibited, on the basis of proposals of the Minister of Trade.
3. Goods included on the list of goods the import or export of which is prohibited may still be imported or exported in necessary cases upon issuance of a decision of the Prime Minister of the Government.

Article 6 Goods for which import and export is subject to issuance of a permit

1. The list of goods for which import and export is subject to issuance of a permit is promulgated with this Decree (Appendix 2).
2. With respect to goods exported pursuant to quotas stipulated by foreign countries, the Minister of Trade shall reach agreement with ministries managing manufacture and with goods industry associations to fix the method for allocating quotas; and shall ensure publicity, transparency and reasonableness.
3. With respect to goods on the list of imports subject to management pursuant to tariff quotas, the Ministry of Trade shall announce the volume of the tariff quota and the method for operating importation of each line of goods after consultation with the Ministry of Finance and relevant ministries managing manufacture; the Ministry of Finance shall preside over co-ordination with relevant ministries and bodies managing manufacture and with the Ministry of Trade to decide and announce import duties applicable to goods [imported] within or outside the tariff quota.
4. With respect to goods on the list of import and export pursuant to automatic permits, the Ministry of Trade shall announce [the list] and organize implementation from time to time.

Article 7 Goods for which import and export is subject to issuance of a permit by the ministry managing the specialized industry

1. The list of import and export goods subject to specialized industry management and the principles applicable in each specialized industry are promulgated with this

Decree (Appendix 3).

2. Permit-issuing bodies must publicly announce the criteria and conditions for issuance of permits; and the procedures for issuance of permits must be correctly conducted in accordance with Regulations on procedures for issuance of import permits promulgated by the Prime Minister of the Government.

Article 8 Import and export goods shall be subject to plant quarantine, inspection for hygiene and safety of foodstuffs, and inspection for compliance with quality standards prior to customs clearance

1. The Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development shall announce the list of import and export goods which must undergo plant quarantine inspection prior to customs clearance, and shall regulate the specific criteria for all types of goods on the list.

2. The Ministry of Health shall announce the list of goods which must be inspected for hygiene and safety of foodstuffs prior to customs clearance, and shall regulate the specific criteria for all types of goods on the list.

3. The Ministry of Science and Technology shall announce the list of import and export goods which must be inspected to ensure compliance with compulsory quality criteria and standards prior to customs clearance, and shall regulate the specific criteria for all types of goods on the list.

Article 9 Announcement of list of goods code numbered HS and amendment to the lists of goods set out in Appendices 1, 2 and 3

1. The Ministry of Trade and ministries managing specialized industries shall reach agreement with the Ministry of Finance to announce the HS code numbers on the Import and Export Tariff Duty List which apply to the lists of goods set out in Appendices 1, 2 and 3 of this Decree.

2. The Government shall issue any decision amending the lists of goods set out in Appendices 2 and 3 of this Decree on the basis of proposals of the Minister of Trade and ministries managing specialized industries.

Article 10 A number of lines of goods which may be imported or exported pursuant to discrete provisions

1. Export of all types of rice and rice goods

Business entities from all economic sectors shall be permitted to export uncooked rice and rice goods.

The Ministry of Trade shall preside over coordination with the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development and with people's committees of provinces which have a large local output of rice goods, and with the Vietnam Association of Food Growers in order to manage the annual export of rice in accordance with the following principles; ensuring the security of foodstuffs, that all quantities of rice goods are sold, that the price of these goods is beneficial for farmers, and that there is a uniform level price of these goods throughout the country; and shall recommend to the Prime Minister of the Government solutions for dealing with issues if the above principles are not in harmony.

With respect to export contracts pursuant to agreements between the Government of Vietnam with foreign Governments (referred to as Government contracts), the Ministry of Trade shall consult the Vietnam Association of Food Growers in order for the latter to uniformly conduct transactions and signing of contracts and delivery of goods.

The Ministry of Trade shall formulate Regulations so that step by step these contracts shall be subject to tendering.

2. Import of petrol and fuel

Import of petrol and fuel shall be implemented in accordance with current Regulations of the Prime Minister of the Government.

3. Import of all types of second-hand cars

All types of second-hand cars which are imported must satisfy this condition: they are not over five years old, calculated from the date of manufacture up until the year of import.

4. Re-export of imported essential commodities for which the State guaranteed foreign currency balancing for import.

All lines of import goods in respect of which the State insures foreign exchange requirements for importation shall only be permitted to be re-exported when payment is made in a freely convertible foreign currency.

The Ministry of Trade shall announce a specific list of these goods from time to time and shall organize implementation.

5. Import of cigarettes and cigars.

Based on the current law on the manufacture, trading and use of all types of cigarettes and based on relevant international undertakings, the Minister of Trade shall preside over co-ordination with the Ministry of Industry to provide specific regulations on import of this line of goods.

6. Import and export of goods servicing national defence and security.

The import and export of goods servicing national defence and security shall be implemented pursuant to decisions of the Prime Minister of the Government.

Based on decisions of the Prime Minister of the Government, the Minister of Police and the Minister of Defence shall provide Regulations on issuance of permits to implement such importation and exportation.

7. Import of all types of wood from countries with common borders.

The Ministry of Trade shall provide specific guidelines on the import of all types of wood from countries with common borders in accordance with the Law of Vietnam, the Laws of the countries concerned, and the relevant agreements Vietnam has made with such countries.

Article 11 Temporary suspension of importation or exportation of goods

Where necessary, the Prime Minister of the Government shall decide to temporarily suspend importation or exportation to or from certain markets or of certain types of goods in order to ensure security and all types of national interests, consistent with the law of Vietnam and international treaties to which the Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a member. Decisions of the Prime Minister of the Government shall be publicly announced for the information of domestic and foreign organizations and individuals.

The Ministry of Trade shall inform relevant international economic organizations and countries in accordance with the agreed procedures (if any) when there is any specific decision of the Prime Minister of the Government temporarily suspending importation or exportation of goods.

CHAPTER III
Goods Temporarily Imported for Re-Export, Temporarily
Exported for Re-Import and Transshipment of Goods

Article 12 Goods temporarily imported for re-export

1. Business entities shall have the right to conduct business in the temporary import and re-export of goods pursuant to the following provisions:

(a) Business entities must have a permit from the Ministry of Trade in order to temporarily import for re-export goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended, or goods on the lists in appendices 2 and 3 of this Decree (if there are regulations on issuance of permits for such goods);

(b) Business entities must have a permit from the Ministry of Trade in order to temporarily import for re-export goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended, or goods on the lists in appendices 2 and 3 of this Decree (if there are regulations on issuance of permits for such goods);

(c) With respect to goods other than those stipulated in clause 1 of this article, business entities shall only be required to conduct procedures at the customs bordergate for temporary import for re-export.

2. Goods which are temporarily imported into Vietnam for re-export shall only be permitted to be circulated in Vietnam for one hundred and twenty (120) days as from the date of completion of customs procedures for temporary import. If this time-limit needs to be extended, business entities must forward a written application to the customs department of the province or city where the original procedures were conducted, and the duration of any one extension shall not exceed thirty (30) days and there shall be no more than two extensions permitted for each consignment of goods temporarily imported for re-export.

3. Goods temporarily imported for re-export shall be subject to customs procedures on importation into Vietnam and shall be subject to customs supervision for the entire period until their re-exportation from Vietnam.

4. Payment of goods by way of temporary import for re-export must comply with regulations on foreign exchange control and other guidelines of the State Bank of Vietnam.

5. Temporary import for re-export shall be implemented on the basis of two separate contracts, namely an import contract and an export contract signed by the Vietnamese business entity with the foreign business entity. The export contract may be signed either before or after the import contract.

Article 13 Various forms of temporary import for re-export

1. Goods being equipment, machinery, processing facilities, models and samples not on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended shall be permitted to be temporarily imported for re-export pursuant to a contract of lease signed between a Vietnamese business entity and a foreign business entity in order to conduct manufacturing or processing. The procedures for temporary import for re-export shall be resolved at the customs bordergate. The temporary import for re-export of all types of import and export goods in the category of management by permit shall be implemented in accordance with the provision in clause 1(a) of article 12.

2. The duration of temporary importation for re-export shall be as stipulated in the agreement between the two business entities and shall be registered with the bordergate customs.

3 Business entities shall have the right to temporarily import goods which they previously exported for reprocessing and which they warranted at the request of the foreign business entity and re-exported for receipt by the foreign business entity. Procedures for temporary import for re-export shall be resolved at the bordergate customs.

Article 14 Temporary export for re-import

1. Business entities shall be permitted to temporarily export for re-import all types of machinery, equipment and means of transportation in order to repair, warrant, manufacture, process and lease them to foreign parties. Procedures for temporary export for re-import shall be regulated as follows:

(a) Goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended, and goods on the lists in appendices 2 and 3 issued with this Decree (if there are regulations on issuance of permits for such goods) must have a permit from the Ministry of Trade;

(b) With respect to goods other than those in the category stipulated in clause 1 of this article, business entities shall only be required to conduct procedures for temporary export for reimport at the customs bordergate.

2. The duration of temporary export for re-import shall be implemented as agreed between the business entities and the duration shall be registered with the bordergate customs.

3. Goods temporarily exported as stipulated in this article shall be permitted to be sold, donated or returned to the foreign customer, or used as assets to contribute capital to a joint venture investment overseas in accordance with a contract between the business entity and a foreign party, except that goods temporarily exported for re-import in the category of goods stipulated in clause 1 of this article must have a permit from the Ministry of Trade prior to performance of the contract with the foreign party. Procedures for customs clearance of consignments of temporarily exported goods shall be resolved at the customs bordergate where procedures are conducted for the temporary export.

4. Payment for goods being machinery, equipment for processing and means of transportation which are sold or used as assets to contribute capital to a joint venture investment overseas must comply with the regulations on foreign exchange control and other guidelines of the State Bank of Vietnam or the current regulations on investment abroad by Vietnamese business entities.

Article 15 Transshipment of goods

Business entities shall have the right to conduct the business of transshipment of goods pursuant to the following provisions:

1. Except for the goods stipulated in clause 2 of this article, it shall be permitted to conduct business in all types of goods by way of transshipment. Transshipment procedures at Vietnamese bordergates shall be resolved by the bordergate customs.

2. With respect to goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended, and goods for which import and export is subject to issuance of a permit, a business entity shall be permitted to tranship goods via Vietnamese bordergates after it has a permit from the Ministry of Trade. Business entities shall not be required to apply for a permit from the Ministry of Trade for the carriage of goods without passing through the bordergates of Vietnam.

3. Goods which are transported via the bordergates of Vietnam shall be subject to customs inspection up until the time they are actually exported from Vietnam.

4. Payment of money or goods by way of conducting the business of transshipment must comply with the regulations on foreign exchange control and other guidelines of the State Bank of Vietnam.

5. Transshipment of goods shall be implemented on the basis of two separate contracts, one for the purchase of goods signed by the Vietnamese business entity with the foreign exporting business entity, and a second for the sale of goods signed by the Vietnamese business entity with the foreign importing business entity. The contract for the purchase of goods may be signed either before or after the contract for the sale of goods.

Article 16 Fighting illegal carriage of goods

In order to prevent the illegal carriage of goods, to fight commercial fraud and to protect the reputation of export goods of Vietnam, in necessary cases the Minister of Trade shall report to the Prime Minister of the Government prior to announcing a list of lines of goods in which business in the form of temporary import for export and transshipment of goods is temporarily suspended. Regulations on the conditions applicable to a number of lines of goods or promulgation of a list of goods in which business may be conducted pursuant to this method must have permission from the Ministry of Trade.

CHAPTER IV
Import and Export of Goods by Authorized Dealers

Article 17 Import and export of goods by authorized dealers

A business entity [the principal] shall be permitted to authorize another business entity [the authorized dealer] to import or export or to act as the authorized dealer receiving import or export from another business entity of all types of goods, except for goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended.

Article 18 Import and export by authorized dealers of goods subject to issuance of a permit

With respect to import and export goods subject to issuance of a permit, as stipulated in this Decree, the principal or the authorized dealer must have an import or export permit prior to either party signing the contract of authorized dealership.

Article 19 Import and export of goods by non-business entities pursuant to an authorized dealership

Vietnamese organizations and individuals shall, subject to their signing a contract of authorized dealership, be permitted to import and export goods to service the requirements of such organization or individual, except for goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended.

Article 20 Rights and obligations of principals and of authorized dealers

The rights and obligations of principals and of authorized dealers shall be as agreed by the parties in the contract of authorized dealership for the import or export of goods.

CHAPTER V

Agency for Sale and Purchase of Goods Involving Foreign Business Entities

SECTION 1

Agency for Sale and Purchase of Goods for Foreign Business Entities

Article 21 Business entities which may act as agents for sale and purchase of goods for foreign business entities

1. A business entity shall be permitted to act as an agent for the purchase or sale of all types of goods for a foreign business entity, except for goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended. With respect to goods on the list for which import or export is subject to issuance of a permit, the business entity shall only be permitted to sign a contract after the Ministry of Trade has issued a permit.

2. In a case where the law contains a specific provision that a principal may only sign an agency contract with one agent with respect to any one type of goods or specified service, then the business entity must comply with such law.

3. Business entities shall be permitted to make payment for the sale of goods by authorized dealers by Vietnamese dong or by foreign currency to the foreign business entity in accordance with the regulations on foreign exchange control and guidelines of the State Bank of Vietnam, or shall be permitted to make payment by goods not on the lists of goods the export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended. If payment is made by way of goods for which export is subject to issuance of a permit, then there must be a permit issued by the competent body.

4. A business entity acting as an authorized dealer for the purchase of goods must require the foreign business entity to remit freely convertible foreign currency via a bank in order to purchase the goods in accordance with the agency contract.

Article 22 Tax obligations

1. Goods under sale and purchase agency contracts shall be subject to taxes and other financial obligations in accordance with the law of Vietnam.

2. Vietnamese business entities shall be responsible for registering, declaring and paying all kinds of taxes and other financial obligations relating to goods under sale and purchase agency contracts and their business activities in accordance with law.

Article 23 Import and export procedures

Goods under sale and purchase agency contracts with foreign business entities shall, on import and export, be subject to the same procedures as in the case of import and export goods stipulated in clauses 1, 2 and 3 of article 4 of this Decree.

Article 24 Return of goods

Goods under agency contracts for sale for foreign business entities in Vietnam must be re-exported if they are not able to be sold in Vietnam. Tax refunds shall be carried out in accordance with regulations of the Ministry of Finance.

SECTION 2

Engaging Foreign Business Entities to Conduct Sale Agency Overseas

Article 25 Engaging foreign business entities to conduct sale agency overseas

1. Business entities shall be permitted to engage foreign business entities to conduct sale agency overseas for all categories of goods, except those on the lists of goods the export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended. With respect to goods on the list of goods the export of which is subject to issuance of a permit as stipulated in this Decree, business entities may only enter into contracts for sale agency overseas after they have been issued with a permit by the Ministry of Trade.

2. Business entities engaging agents to sell goods overseas must enter into an agency contract with a foreign business entity and must remit to Vietnam all revenue received from the sale agency contract in accordance with regulations on foreign exchange control and guidelines of the State Bank of Vietnam.

3. In cases where payments from sales of goods by agents are received in kind, the business entity must comply with the current law regarding imported goods.

Article 26 Tax obligations

1. Goods under overseas sale agency contracts shall be subject to taxes and other financial obligations in accordance with the law of Vietnam.

2. Business entities shall be responsible to register, declare and pay all types of taxes and to fulfil other financial obligations arising in relation to engaging foreign business entities to conduct sale agency overseas, in accordance with guidelines of the Ministry of Finance.

Article 27 Return of goods

1. Goods exported under overseas sale agency contracts shall be imported back into Vietnam if they are not able to be sold overseas.

2. Goods imported back into Vietnam as referred to in clause 1 of this article shall not be subject to import duty and shall be entitled to export duty refunds (if any) in accordance with guidelines of the Ministry of Finance.

Article 28 Import and export procedures

The procedures for the export of goods under overseas sale agency contracts, including the import of goods back into Vietnam pursuant to article 27 of this Decree, shall be carried out the same as in the case of import and export goods stipulated in clauses 1, 2 and 3 of article 4 of this Decree.

CHAPTER VI Processing of Goods Involving Foreign Business Entities

SECTION 1 Processing for Foreign Business Entities

Article 29 Business entities which may process goods for foreign business entities

Business entities, including business entities with foreign owned capital, shall be permitted to process all goods for foreign business entities, except for goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended. With respect to goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is subject to issuance of a permit, business entities may only enter into processing contracts after they have been issued with a permit by the Ministry of Trade.

Article 30 Processing contracts

A processing contract must be made in writing or in another form with equivalent legal validity, and may include the following terms:

- (a) Names and addresses of contracting parties and of the party directly conducting the processing;
- (b) Name and quantity of processed products;
- (c) Prices for processing;
- (d) Time-limit for and method of payment;
- (dd) List, quantity and value of imported raw materials, sub-materials and supplies and domestically produced raw materials, sub-materials and supplies (if any) for processing; levels of use of raw materials, sub-materials and supplies; level of consumption of supplies and wastage rate of raw materials in processing;
- (e) List and value of machinery and equipment leased, lent or donated for the purpose of processing (if any);
- (g) Measures to treat scrap and discharged waste and principles for dealing with leased or borrowed machinery and equipment and with left-over raw materials, sub-materials and supplies upon termination of the processing contract;
- (h) Location and time of goods delivery;
- (i) Trade mark of goods and appellation of origin of goods;
- (k) Duration of validity of contract.

Article 31 Levels of use and consumption and wastage rate of raw materials, sub-materials and supplies

The levels of use and consumption and the wastage rate of raw materials, sub-materials and supplies shall be as agreed by the parties in processing contracts, taking into account the permissible levels and rates in the relevant Vietnamese manufacturing and processing industries as at the time of entering into the contract. Directors of enterprises being processors shall be responsible for the use of imported raw materials, sub-materials and supplies solely for the purpose of processing, and any breaches shall be dealt with in accordance with law.

Article 32 Leasing, borrowing or importing machinery and equipment of suppliers for implementation of processing contracts

Processors may lease or borrow machinery and equipment from their suppliers for the purpose of implementation of processing contracts. The lease, borrowing or donation of machinery and equipment must be agreed in the processing contract.

Article 33 Rights and obligations of suppliers and processors

1. In respect of suppliers:

(a) To provide all or a part of the raw materials and supplies for processing as agreed in the processing contract;

(b) To take back all processed products, leased or lent machinery and equipment and left-over raw materials, sub-materials, supplies and scraps after liquidation of the processing contract, except in cases of on-the-spot export, destruction or donation thereof as permitted by this Decree;

(c) To send experts to Vietnam to provide instructions on production techniques and inspect the quality of processed products as agreed in the processing contract;

To be responsible for the right to use trademarks of goods and appellations of origin of goods;

(dd) To comply with the law of Vietnam on processing activities and with the terms of the signed processing contract;

(e) To be permitted to conduct on-the-spot export of processed products, leased or lent machinery and equipment and left-over raw materials, sub-materials and supplies, faulty products and scraps in accordance with written agreements between the parties concerned and consistent with current regulations on control of import and export of goods; provided that all tax obligations and other financial obligations stipulated by law must be fulfilled.

2. In respect of processors:

(a) To be exempted from import duties in respect of machinery, equipment, raw materials, submaterials and supplies temporarily imported in accordance with the fixed limits for the purpose of implementation of a processing contract; to be exempted from export duties in respect of processed products;

(b) To employ other business entities as processors;

(c) To be provided with a part or all of the raw materials, sub-materials and supplies for processing as agreed in the processing contract and to pay export duties in accordance with the provisions of the Law on Import and Export Duties in respect of the raw materials, submaterials and supplies purchased locally;

(d) To receive payment from the supplier in the form of processed products, except in cases where such products are on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended. In respect of products for which import and export is subject to issuance of a permit, there must be a permit from the Ministry of Trade or from the competent body authorized by the Ministry of Trade;

(dd) To comply with the law of Vietnam on processing, exporting, importing and manufacturing goods locally and the terms of the signed processing contract;

(e) To carry out procedures for on-the-spot export of processed products, leased or lent machinery and equipment and left-over raw materials, sub-materials and supplies, faulty products and scraps as authorized by principals.

3. Conditions for on-the-spot import and export of processed products, leased or lent machinery and equipment and left-over raw materials, sub-materials and supplies, faulty products and scraps:

(a) The provisions of the law relating to import goods and duties and other financial obligations must be complied with;

(b) A contract of sale and purchase must be entered into between the foreign business entity or entity legally authorized by the foreign business entity and an import business entity.

Article 34 Transitional processing

Business entities shall be permitted to conduct transitional processing.

1. The processed products under any one processing contract may be used as materials for processing in Vietnam under another processing contract.

2. Processed products under a processing contract in one phase shall, under instructions of the supplier, be provided for the purpose of the processing contract of the following phase.

Article 35 Finalization and customs clearance of processing contracts

1. Upon termination or expiry of a processing contract, the parties to the processing contract must finalize the contract and carry out clearance procedures with the customs office.

In respect of processing contracts having a duration of more than one year, the processors shall carry out customs clearance procedures for such contracts every year with the customs office.

2. The basis for finalization and customs clearance of a processing contract is the quantity of imported raw materials, sub-materials and supplies and the quantity of products exported against the fixed level of use of raw materials, sub-materials and supplies, the fixed level of consumption of supplies and the wastage rate as agreed in the processing contract.

3. Upon completion of a processing contract, any machinery and equipment leased or borrowed under the contract, left-over raw materials, sub-materials and supplies, faulty products and scraps shall be dealt with as agreed in the processing contract which must be consistent with the law of Vietnam.

4. The destruction of faulty products and scraps (if any) may only be carried out with permission from the Department of Natural Resources and Environment and must be conducted under the supervision of the customs office. In cases where destruction in Vietnam is not permitted, reexportation on instructions of the supplier shall be required.

5. The donation of machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials, supplies, scraps or faulty products shall be regulated as follows:

(a) The principal must issue a written document of gift;

(b) The donee must fulfil import procedures in accordance with current provisions on import and export; and must pay import duties and other taxes (if any) and register assets in accordance with current regulations.

Article 36 Customs procedures

The Ministry of Finance shall provide guidelines on customs procedures and financial obligations applicable to the export of processed products and shall monitor importation and exportation related to processing contracts.

SECTION 2 Processing of Goods in Foreign Countries

Article 37 General provisions

1. Business entities of all economic sectors may have any type of goods which are permitted to be circulated in Vietnam processed in foreign countries for business purposes in accordance with law.
2. The exportation of machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials or supplies for processing and the importation of processed products must comply with the law on import and export.
3. Contracts for processing of goods in foreign countries and the customs procedures in respect of the import and export of such processed goods shall comply with the provisions of articles 30 and 36 of this Decree.

Article 38 Rights and obligations of business entities having goods processed in foreign countries

1. To export temporarily machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials or supplies or to tranship machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials or supplies from a third party to the processor for the purpose of implementation of a processing contract.
2. To re-import processed products and, upon completion of a processing contract, to re-import left-over machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials or supplies.
3. To sell processed products and exported machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials or supplies for the purpose of implementation of a processing contract in the market of the country of the processor or any other market and to pay tax in accordance with the current law.
4. To be exempted from import duties and export duties in respect of machinery, equipment, raw materials, sub-materials or supplies temporarily exported for re-import; or to pay export duties in accordance with the Law on Import and Export Duties where re-import is not carried out.
5. To send experts and technical workers abroad for the purpose of inspection and acceptance of processed products.
6. The Ministry of Finance shall provide guidelines on discharge of financial obligations applicable to processed products imported to service domestic consumption.

CHAPTER VII

Transit of Goods Through Territory of Vietnam

Article 39 Business entities permitted to provide transshipment services

Business entities which have a business registration certificate for the lines of business being receipt and delivery of goods and carriage of goods shall be permitted to provide transshipment services via the territory of Vietnam for foreign goods owners.

Article 40 Transit of goods through the territory of Vietnam

1. All types of goods owned by foreign organizations and individuals shall be permitted to transit through the territory of Vietnam, except for weapons, ammunition, explosives, other highly dangerous goods, and goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended. Transit procedures shall be resolved by the bordergate customs, unless an international treaty to which the Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a member contains some other provision.

The Ministry of Trade is delegated to announce the list of highly dangerous goods, after consulting the opinions of relevant Ministries and branches.

2. Goods being weapons, ammunition, explosives and highly dangerous goods shall only be permitted to transit through the territory of Vietnam with permission from the Prime Minister of the Government.

3. Goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is prohibited or temporarily suspended, and goods on the lists of goods the import and export of which is subject to issuance of a permit shall be permitted to transit through the territory of Vietnam with permission from the Ministry of Trade, unless an international treaty to which the Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a member contains some other provision in which case such treaty shall apply.

4. Goods in transit through the territory of Vietnam shall be subject to supervision by the customs of Vietnam for the whole period during which they are circulating in the territory of Vietnam, and shall enter and exit Vietnam via the correct bordergate and route as stipulated; the quantity of goods exported must be the same quantity which was imported, with the same packaging and container.

5. The owner of goods in transit must pay customs fees and other types of charges applicable to goods in transit pursuant to the current law of Vietnam.

6. Goods in transit shall not be permitted to be sold or consumed in the territory of Vietnam. In necessary cases of sale or consumption in Vietnam, application for permission must be made to the Ministry of Trade.

7. The Ministry of Trade shall provide guidelines for conducting transit of goods through the territory of Vietnam in the cases of Treaties which have provisions different to those stipulated in clauses 1, 2 and 3 of this article.

8. The Ministry of Finance shall provide guidelines on procedures for storage including open storage of goods in transit, procedures for ship to ship transshipment, for change of means of carriage of goods in transit, and for extension of duration of goods in transit.

9. The Ministry of Transport and Communications shall provide guidelines on transit routes.

CHAPTER VIII Dealing with Breaches

Article 41 Dealing with breaches by business entities

Business entities breaching the provisions of this Decree shall, depending on the seriousness of the breach, be subject to administrative penalty or shall be prosecuted for criminal liability in accordance with law.

Article 42 Dealing with breaches by State officials and employees

State officials and employees who abuse their position or power to breach the provisions of this Decree shall, depending on the seriousness of the breach, be subject to disciplinary penalty or shall be prosecuted for criminal liability in accordance with law.

CHAPTER IX Implementing Provisions

Article 43 Implementing provision

1. This Decree shall be of full force and effect from 1 May 2006 and shall replace Decree 57-1998-ND-CP of the Government dated 31 July 1998 making detailed provisions for implementation of the Commercial Law with respect to importation, exportation, processing and sale and purchase agency involving foreign parties, and Decree 44-2001-ND-CP of the Government dated 2 August 2001 amending Decree

No. 57-1998-ND-CP dated 31 July 1998.

Any previous provisions on management of import and export of goods which are inconsistent with this Decree are hereby repealed.

All legal instruments and guidelines for implementation of this Decree by ministries, branches and other bodies involved must be issued in order to take effect from 1 May 2006.

2. The Ministry of Finance shall instruct the customs branch to formulate a plan to supply to the Ministry of Trade and to other ministries and branches involved in the work of managing and operating import and export, on a periodical and random basis, data about enterprises engaged in import and export business and other types of business stipulated in this Decree, and data on import and export quotas according to lists of goods and markets and other relevant data on import and export required by the Ministry of Trade.

3. The Ministry of Trade shall preside over co-ordination with other ministries and branches and with people's committees of provinces and cities under central authority to discharge the responsibility to inspect implementation of the provisions in this Decree; and to detect and notify any incorrect provisions in legal instruments of ministries and branches guiding implementation of this Decree so that such provisions can be amended.

4. Ministers, heads of ministerial equivalent bodies, heads of Government bodies and chairmen of provinces and cities under central authority shall be responsible for guiding the implementation of, and for implementing, this Decree.

For the Government
The Prime Minister
